571 Description of mark

The mark consists of the words "HOLLYWOOD" written vertically and the word "THE" is written horizontally above the "H" in "HOLLYWOOD", both in yellow stylized font. The words appear on a tall thin sign with orange lights on a red background for the front of the sign, the frame and visible side is gray. A piece of purple and black film strip curls from the left of the sign. Below the vertical sign is the word "SALOON" in white stylized font written on a black, gray and blue film strip. The holes along the top and bottom of the film strip are white. Above the word "SALOON" and to the right of the vertical sign is a drawing of an old-west storefront in brown. The storefront has a porch with railing and two black silhouetted persons are seated, the one on the right has his feet resting on the porch railing. From the top of the storefront is a rectangle emitting a yellow light. The foreground of the mark is purple; the background is the black night sky with white stars. The horizon has purple and brown desert features. Four white and blue spotlights emanate upwards into the sky from behind the sign and storefront.
